

THE YEAR 2011 MARKS THE FOUR HUNDREDTH ANNIVERSARY OF ONE OF THE LANDMARK EVENTS IN THE HISTORY OF CHRISTIANITY
THE PUBLICATION OF THE KING JAMES BIBLE.

1611 400th 2011

anniversary

THE KING JAMES BIBLE

AND THE WORLD IT MADE

TO CELEBRATE AND REFLECT

upon the incomparable influence of the King James Bible. Baylor University will host the preeminent international event recognizing this auspicious moment in the history of Anglo-American and world Christianity.

THE KING JAMES BIBLE AND THE WORLD IT MADE

will assemble distinguished scholars from around the globe to consider the history and ramifications of the Bible in English.

Major conference themes will include the way that the King James Bible created a common literary and religious culture in the English-speaking world; the significance of vernacular translation for Christian growth and development; and the challenges posed by recent declines in biblical literacy and the end of the King James's dominance as the Bible translation for English-speaking Christians.

APRIL 7-9, 2011 ♦ BAYLOR UNIVERSITY ♦ WACO, TEXAS

FOR MORE INFORMATION WWW.ISRELIGION.ORG/KJV400

FEATURING INTERNATIONALLY RENOWNED EXPERTS ON THE HISTORY AND RAMIFICATIONS OF THE KING JAMES BIBLE, INCLUDING:

ROBERT ALTER
University of California,
Berkeley

PHILIP JENKINS
Baylor Institute for Studies of Religion

MARK NOLL
University of Notre Dame

LAMIN SANNEH
Yale University

DAVID BEBBINGTON
University of Stirling

LAURA KNOPPERS
The Pennsylvania State University

ALISTER E. MCGRATH
Kings College, London

N.T. WRIGHT
University of St. Andrews

HISTORICAL STUDIES OF RELIGION
BAYLOR INSTITUTE FOR STUDIES OF RELIGION

BAYLOR UNIVERSITY

TRUETT

George W. Truett Theological Seminary